

Global Job Title	Global Category Manager Indirect Procurement
Job Level	3B
Location	Richmond
Business Unit	Global Procurement
Function	Procurement
Leader	Global Procurement Director
People Leadership	Yes
Role Purpose  Support the Global Procurement Director in delivering an industry-leading Global Indirect Procurement function operating across all Business Units that is aligned with the long-term plans of the WG&S. Provide oversight and support in developing indirect procurement capabilities.  As a member of the Global Procurement leadership team, individually and collectively develop and manage the Global Procurement team in all respects in order to achieve the Global Procurement Objectives.
Accountabilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Lead the development of the Indirect Procurement team to ensure that the skills and resources are in place to understand and manage the requirements of the business.</li><li>• Cultivate insight into the categories under control to develop and implement sourcing plans that deliver competitive advantages to WG&amp;S (e.g. best value, quality, service, resilience, sustainability). Make sure that these plans are aligned with current, developing and future business needs.</li><li>• Identify and realise cost saving and cost avoidance opportunities and build a culture of long-term procurement savings without compromising quality, service or assurance of supply.</li><li>• Lead the RFX processes and any complex negotiations for the Indirect Procurement categories.</li><li>• Improve the coverage of the Indirect Procurement spend categories through increasing visibility of spend and nurturing strong relationships with budget holders.</li><li>• Contribute to the development of the Indirect Procurement policy as part of the Global Procurement policy and support putting it into practice.</li><li>• Manage complex projects from concept through to implementation, including the change management process</li><li>• Maintain an efficient and effective supply base, rationalising it if appropriate and facilitate quarterly business reviews to ensure contract compliance and continually identify improvement opportunities.</li><li>• Actively promote the William Grant &amp; Sons diversity, equity and inclusion agenda throughout the business and across the supply base.</li></ul>	